5. Writing

PRESENT PERFECT vs PAST SIMPLE

The PRESENT PERFECT always connects the past and the present.

1

- UNFINISHED ACTIONS (these started in the past and continue up to the present)

- I have lived in London for 10 years. (= I still live in London now.)

The PAST SIMPLE tells us only about the past.

- FINISHED ACTIONS (for something that started in the past and finished in the past)

- I lived in Manchester for 10 years. (= I do not live in Manchester now.)

2

- INDEFINITE ACTIONS: with no time reference or references to recent time - these put emphasis on the action and usually have a result in the present.

- I have lost my wallet. (= this means very recently and puts the emphasis on the action)
- He has just left the office. (= this action is completed and has a result in the present – probably he is on his way home now)

- DEFINITE ACTION: we use a definite past time, like yesterday, 5 days ago, last month.... to say or imply WHEN something happened.

- I lost my wallet yesterday. (= here I want to stress when the action happened)

Complete the blanks either with the PRESENT PERFECT or PAST SIMPLE and match them with the pictures.
