The tamburitza has three parts: a body, a neck and a head. There are different types of tamburitza, with different number of strings, four, five, six or even more.
- ☐ A philharmonic orchestra is a big group of musicians, about a hundred. It has different sections: a string section (the violin, the cello ...), a brass section (the trumpet, the trombone ...), a woodwind section (the flute, the clarinet ...) and a percussion section (the drums, the triangle ...). They play different music.
- ☐ There are usually five members in a rock band. The music they play is very loud with a lot of rhythm. The instruments are the electric guitar, the bass guitar, the drums and the keyboard. The fifth member in a rock band is the lead singer who sometimes also plays an instrument.
