A. The people and the cat shown below were involved in a car accident. Can you guess what happened?

Tip! Before you read the text, look at the pictures. They will help you understand the text.

B. A police officer is interviewing three eyewitnesses to the accident. Listen, read and check your answers. Then read the dialogues out in groups.

Officer Excuse me, what exactly happened here?
Man I'm not sure. I live in that house over there. I just saw the boy. He was lying on the pavement and his knee was bleeding, so I called for an ambulance.
Officer Did the car hit the boy?
Man I really don't know. Is he OK now?
Officer The boy? Yes, he just hurt his back and his knee.

Officer Excuse me, did you see the accident?
Girl Yes. The boy was skateboarding on the pavement. Suddenly, I saw the car.
Officer Where were you?
Girl I was walking on the other side of the street.
Officer Was the driver going fast?
Girl Yes! But suddenly, the car swerved, changed direction and almost hit the boy!
Officer So, the car didn't hit the boy.
Girl No, he just fell down and the car crashed into a tree.
Officer That's strange.

Officer Excuse me, can you explain what happened?
Woman Well, there was a cat, you see.
Officer Ah! A cat.
Woman Yes. It was in the middle of the street. I think the driver didn't want to hit it, so she...
Officer Now, I understand. The driver swerved because of the cat and almost hit the boy.
Woman What boy?
Officer Never mind.
