FC BARCELONA

Més que un club (More than a club)

FC Barcelona is a sports club for men and women and has got basketball, football, handball, roller hockey and futsal teams. But it is most famous for its football team. They are a top European team and their nickname is Barça.

On 22 October 1899, Joan Gamper placed an advertisement in the local newspaper wanting to start a football club. Lots of people replied and Barça was born. In 1902, Barça won their first trophy, the Copa Macaya. Gamper became the club president and Barça turned into a very successful team.

In 1988, ex-player and Barça hero, Johan Cruyff returned to the club as manager and he brought together the so-called Barça Dream Team. They won four championships in a row with players like Ronald Koeman and Pep Guardiola.

In 2009, Pep Guardiola's first season as manager, they achieved something amazing! They won the treble of La Liga, Copa del Ray and the UEFA Champions League. What is more amazing is that in 2015 they became the first European team to win the treble twice.

In 1957, the Camp Nou Stadium became the home of Barça. Today, the stadium can hold 99,354 spectators and it is usually full, especially for El Clásico matches with Barça's main rival, Real Madrid.
